Summer 2022

Centerville-Washington History Summer Youth Workshops provide a fun-filled blast from the past!

Workshop hours are 9 AM—Noon.

Pre-packaged snacks and bottles of water will be provided.

Workshop and materials fee is $45 per workshop.

Centerville-Washington History members' children/grandchildren receive a $5 discount.

2022 Workshops:

Old Tyme Woodworking

Thursday, June 30

Build a wooden birdhouse using old time woodworking tools from the 1800's. While you paint your birdhouse we will share some fun facts about our local birds.

A Summer Day of Work and Play

Thursday, July 14

In the early 1800's, families came to Ohio ready to work. Try your hand at churning butter, using a washboard and making tin lanterns. Have fun learning about toys and playing games from the past.

Hands on History....1930's

Wednesday, July 20

The Great Depression required "Great Distractions" to keep children entertained during the tough times in the 1930's. Learn and play popular games with marbles and chalk. Watch the first Soap Box Derby race and build your own race car. Explore different quilting patterns to use in your own creation. Children will learn about how Acts of Kindness can bring communities together.

Health and safety is a priority during our workshops.

Centerville-Washington History asks that participants stay home if they experience COVID related symptoms. Refunds will be issued in cases of illness if we are notified at the beginning of the workshop.
