

Historic buildings of Centerville.

Presented by Ed Ross, Centerville-Washington History.

This presentation is part of the “On the Road” Chat Series that brings history out of the museum and into the community. Ed will discuss the architecture and history of several buildings in Centerville.

Ed Ross is a retired businessman and current President of Centerville-Washington History. He has served as the Chairman of the Centerville Architectural Review and is the owner of the historic Ida Weller estate.
